Established Store

If your store is open and running sales, Ricochet will only need a few details from you to provide your customized rate.

How to Prepare

- Your primary shipping address
- Number of store locations
- Number of credit card terminals your store is currently using
- Your three most recent credit card statements from your store's merchant service provider

TIP: Having trouble locating your statements? Just give your current merchant service provider a call.

New Store or Opening Soon

Make sure you are prepared for opening day! Ricochet Pay offers new stores the opportunity and streamlined process they need.

How to Prepare

- Your current shipping address
- Number of credit card terminals you are planning on using
- Estimated average transaction amount
- Estimated monthly revenue

TIP: If you are unsure what your estimated transaction value or monthly sales will be, you can still qualify for the standard rate.

What's Next?

Once you provide us with your statements, you can sit back and relax while we do the rest.

- Your statements will take one business day to be submitted.
- Your custom rate will be emailed to you within 24-48 hours.

TIP: This email will come from Kenneth from Fullsteam.
